

In The Absence of Faith

Series, 2023

Ana Priscila Rodriguez

People often say they better not expect anything because of fear of disappointment, but how about the prayers? Are we disappointed when our prayers are not answered or worse even, when we received something we have been praying to be spared from? This series invite the viewer to introspection between desire and faith, having the concept of a higher being, which could be anything around us, regardless of culture or religion. Where does our disappointment come from, and is our lack of faith in any regard connected to an easier resolution...?
